

Who is ASPPH?

Using 2015 annual data, the ASPPH Data Center provides a snapshot of faculty, students and graduates at our member schools and programs. This dataset includes data from 85 fully CEPH-accredited members. As ASPPH membership expands, more data will become available.

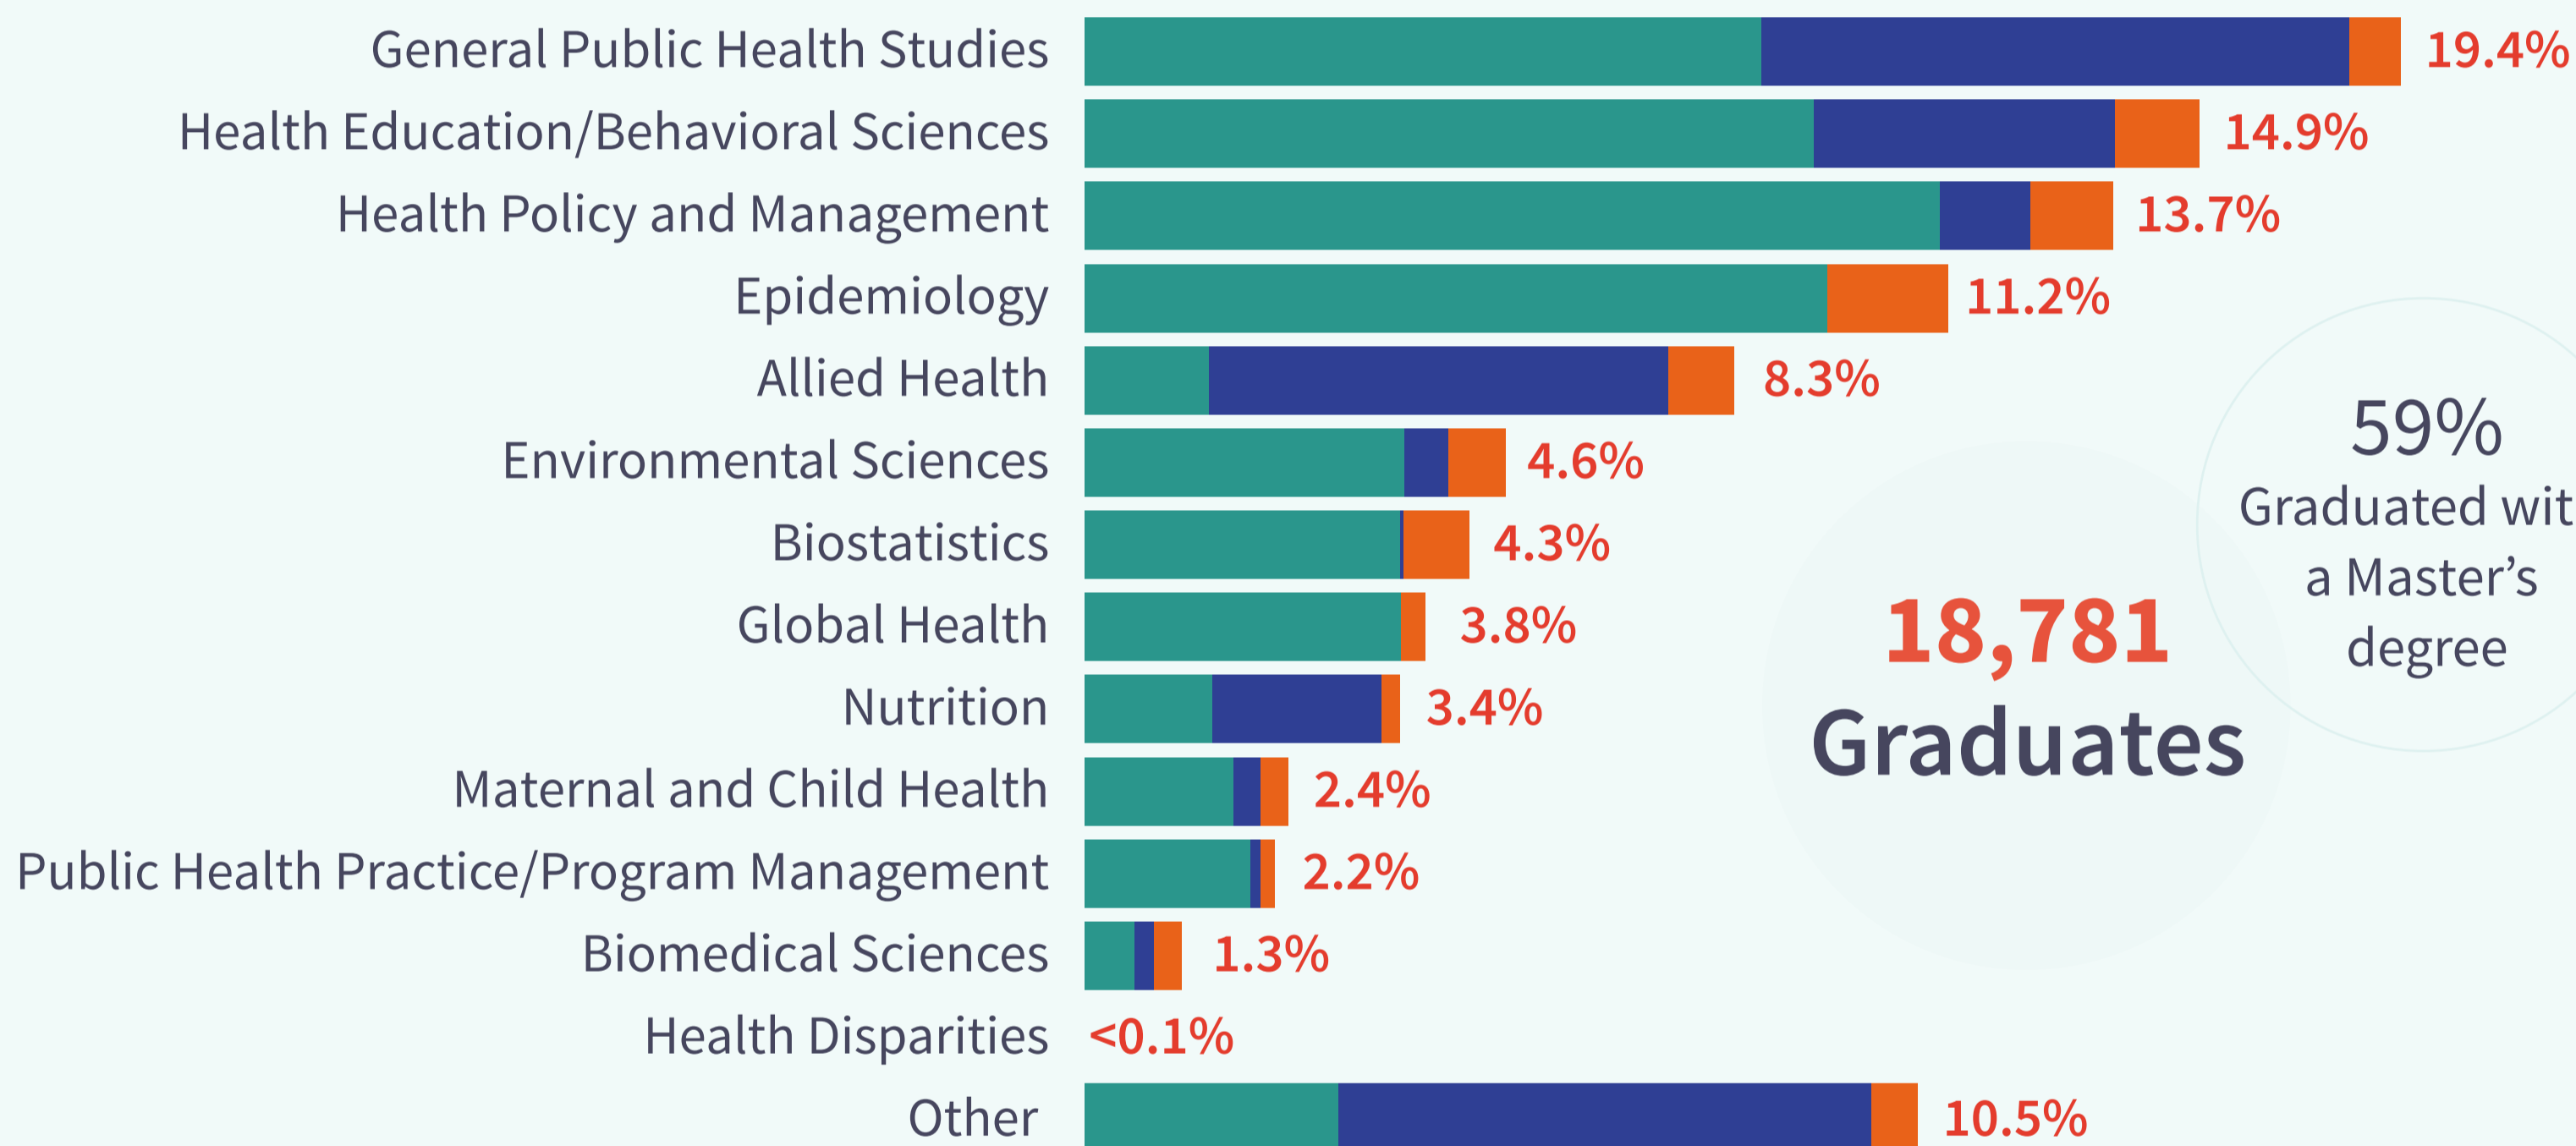

Faculty Type

Student Degree Levels

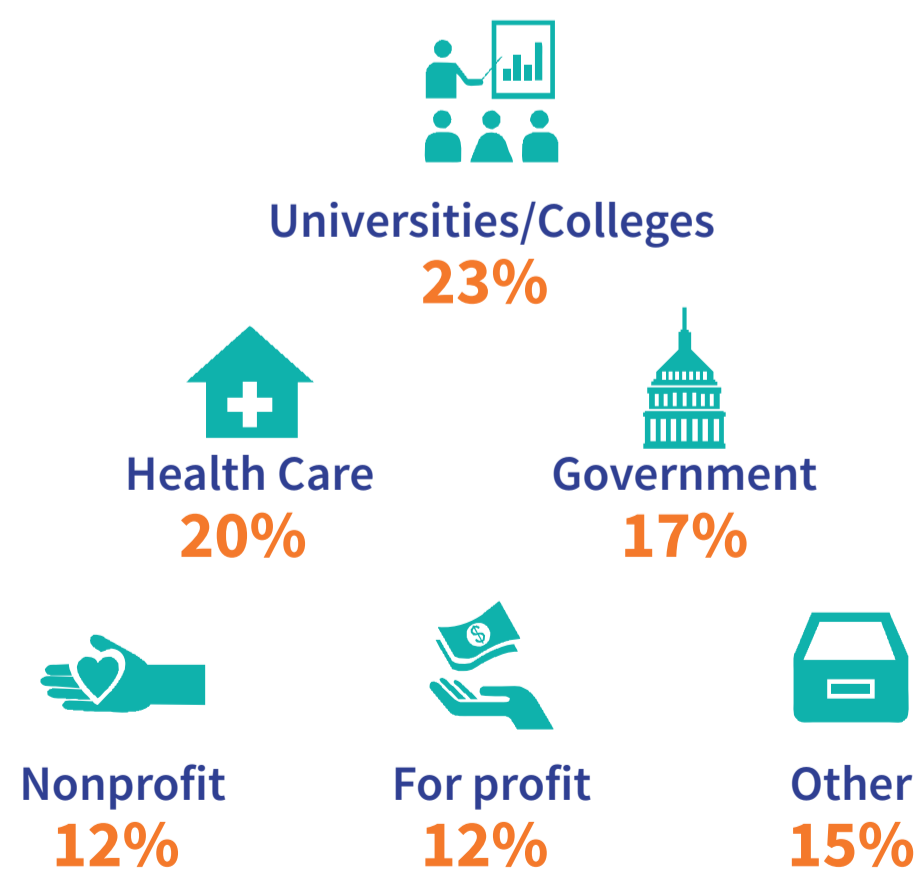

Specializations of Graduates

Employment Sectors

Employment sector data was gathered from a 2014 survey of nearly 5,000 public health graduates of member institutions. These results do not include baccalaureate graduates.
